We're starting to see the pace of the off-season coaching carousel pick up. As of today we've seen 41 jobs change or open across the state.

Photo: Joe Salas was named as the new head coach at Lumberton earlier this week replacing Mike Brill who retired following last season.

High School	Former Head Coach	New Head Coach
Aycock, C.B.	Randy Pinkowski
Bandys	Randy Lowman	Trent Lowman
Brevard	Jeff Bailey
Carver, G.W.	Melvin Palmer
Cary	Ben Kolstad
Central Davidson	Brad Morton	Chad Tedder
Clayton	Gary Fowler
East Chapel Hill	Bill Renner

East Henderson	Brett Chappell
Eastern Guilford	David Hines
Fairmont	James Atkinson	Randy Ragland
Garner	Nelson Smith
Greene Central	Kenneth Grantham	Allen Wooten
Hunt, J.B.	Randy Raper
Independence	Bill Geiler	Joe Evans
Lumberton	Mike Brill	Joe Salas
North Moore	Greg Simmons	Jerry Spencer
Northeast Guilford	Tommy Pursley
Northern Nash	Mickey Crouch	Randy Raper
Northwest Halifax	Andre Stewart
Overhills	Tim Karrs
Parkland	Deangelo Bell
Pisgah	David Pressley	Brett Chappell
Roanoke Rapids	Russell Weinstein	Will Clark
Robinson, J.M.	Bobby Cloninger
Rose, J.H.	Todd Lipe
Sanderson, J.O.	Tony Lewis	Ben Kolstad
Sanford, Terry	Wayne Inman
Seventy-First	Bob Paroli	Duran McLaurin
Smith, Ben L.	Rodney Brewington
Smith, E.E.	Duran McLaurin
South Creek	Jeremy Jones
South Davidson	Mike Crowell	Joe Cullen
South Lenoir	Tim Jenkins
Southern Lee	Tom Paris
SouthWest Edgecombe	Raymond Cobb	Jonathan Cobb
Watauga	Tom Wright
West Bladen	Joe Salas
West Johnston	Randy Ragland
West Stanly	Jared Bennett
West Wilkes	Scott Hallock	David Hunt

*Note, multiple jobs are in the closing stages and hires will be announced in the coming days in several hires to include Concord Robinson and Winston-Salem Carver.

Follow Chris Hughes and CarolinaPreps.com on Twitter @CarolinaPreps1 for the latest news in off-season movement.